READ THE NEW TESTAMENT

IN COLOR RATHER THAN BLACK AND WHITE

- ☐ Would you rather see things in color or black and white?
- ☐ Reading the New Testament through Western eyes is like reading it in black and white. We read the words but miss the vivid beauty of its expressions and meaning.
- ☐ Reading the New Testament through Jewish eyes is like reading it in color. The words “pop” with vibrant life and beauty that would impress the most avid “leaf peeper” in a New England fall.
- ☐ In this course, you will learn to read the New Testament in color by studying the Hebraic/Jewish background of the words of Jesus and His talmidim (disciples).
- ☐ For example, knowing that the first 15 bishops of the early church in Jerusalem were Jews and relatives of Jesus helps us understand the organization of the early church and what they believed.
- ☐ Realizing that Jesus used teaching techniques of first century Jewish Bible teachers helps us understand His words in their original context. You will be amazed to see in living color His sometimes difficult words “pop” off the pages and into your heart.
- ☐ And how about Paul? Understanding that he was a “torah-observant Jew” helps us understand the challenge he had of explaining Hebraic concepts to a Greco-Roman world and how we have misunderstood his writings.
- ☐ Knowing what Jews anticipated in announcing the appearance of the Messiah gives fresh depth and meaning to the baptism of Jesus and the “daughter voice” that introduced Him.
- ☐ Messianic miracles of Jesus and much, much more ... !
